The display of political, religious, or personal messages or slogans in any language or form by players and officials on their playing or team kits, equipment (including kit bags, beverage containers, medical bags, etc.) or body is prohibited. The similar display of commercial messages and slogans in any language or form by players and officials is not allowed for the duration of their time at any official activity organised or recognised by OFC (including in the stadiums for official matches and training sessions, as well as during official media conferences and mixed-zone activities).

- 29.4. This information, supported by photos or samples of their first-choice and alternative player kits, shall be sent to OFC Competitions on the official form and no later than as prescribed by the relevant issued Circular. Only these colours may be worn during matches. Any Participating Association that does not comply with this Article shall be fined NZ$ 500 by the OFC General Secretariat.
- 29.5. OFC Competitions will inform the Participating Association of the playing colours before the start of each match. The colours decided by OFC Competitions, in consultation with the Match Officials, is final.
- 29.6. As far as possible, each team shall wear its first-choice colours as submitted by the teams prior to the competition. If the two teams' colours and the match officials' colour might cause confusion, the following principles shall be applied by OFC Competitions to allocate the match colours:

 - 29.6.1.4. Team B goalkeeper kit
 - 29.6.1.5. Match officials (referees) kit

29.6.2. If the above order of priority does not produce a clear colour contrast of the kits, the allocation shall continue step by step in reverse order (5-1) until an acceptable colour contrast is confirmed.

29.6.3. If necessary, one or both teams may have to wear a combination of their first-choice and alternative player or goalkeeper kits.

In principle, OFC Competitions shall also consider the option of dark-kit and light-kit colour-contrast assignments in the interests of accommodating individuals with a colour vision deficiency whenever reasonably practicable.

The numbers on the playing jerseys shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the Official Team List. The same number may, at the Participating Association's discretion, be displayed on the front of the shirt. In the event of a goalkeeper being replaced by an outfield Player, each Participating Association shall provide a goalkeeper kit without a number displayed on the back of the shirt in order to distinguish this replacement goalkeeper from other Players.
