- 4.9. The Club participating to any FIFA Women's Club Competition shall pay to the OFC a sum equivalent to 5% of the total of all prizemoney received as a result of its participation to the FIFA Women's Club Competition. This sum shall be due no later than one month from the date the Participating Club receives the prizemoney from FIFA.

5. Integrity of the Competition and match-fixing

- 5.1. All persons bound by OFC's rules and regulations must refrain from any behaviour that damages or could damage the integrity of matches and the Competitions and must always cooperate fully with OFC in its efforts to combat such behaviour.
- 5.2. The integrity of matches and the Competition is violated, for example but not limited to, by anyone:
 - 5.2.1. who acts in a manner that is likely to exert an unlawful or undue influence on the course and/or result of a match or Competition with a view to gaining an advantage for themselves or a third party;
 - 5.2.2. who participates directly or indirectly in betting or similar activities relating to competition matches or who has a direct or indirect financial interest in such activities;
 - 5.2.3. who uses or provides others with information, which is not publicly available, which is obtained through their position in football, and damages or could damage the integrity of a match or Competition;
 - 5.2.4. who does not immediately and voluntarily inform OFC if approached in connection with activities aimed at influencing in an unlawful or undue manner the course and/or result of a match or the Competition; and
 - 5.2.5. who does not immediately and voluntarily report to OFC any behaviour they are aware of that may fall within the scope of this Article.
- 5.3. Concerns or complaints of match-fixing must be reported immediately to the OFC Integrity Officer by email to integrity@oceaniafootball.com.

- 5.4. If filed after the relevant Competition stage has finished, complaints regarding match-fixing can have no impact on the sporting result of the Competition or match in question and, therefore, the match cannot be replayed.
- 5.5. If OFC concludes to its reasonable satisfaction that an Ordinary Member Association or Participating Club has been directly and/or indirectly involved in any activity aimed at arranging or influencing the outcome of a match at domestic or international level, such Ordinary Member Association or Participating Club will be declared ineligible to enter in the Competition.

6. Insurance

- 6.1. The OFC shall provide the OFC Delegation, including Match Officials, travel insurance cover in accordance with OFC's policies from the time of their departure from home to the time of arrival. If they are not travelling internationally, no travel insurance cover will be provided. Match Officials who are not travelling internationally, if injured while officiating at a match or during other official duties, OFC will pay the reasonable medical costs of emergency treatment.
- 6.2. Each relevant Host Association must have public liability and indemnity insurance cover. Such insurance cover must involve an appropriate sum for injury and damage to persons and property and correspond to the specific responsibilities, circumstances of each relevant Host Association. The policies must fully cover all risks concerned with staging of the Competition. Each Host Association must provide to OFC certificates of insurance one month before the Competition commences.
- 6.3. If Vanuatu Football Federation is a Host Association, OFC must be named as an insured party on their policies.
- 6.4. The Participating Clubs must have insurance cover (including travel, medical and public liability) for their delegation, including players and officials, at their own expense, at an adequate level to cover the Competition. Claims for damages against OFC are expressly excluded, and the Participating Clubs shall hold OFC harmless against any such claims.
- 6.5. Each Participating Club must provide to OFC, before the Competition commences, a certificate of insurance of the insurance policies.
- 6.6. Each Participating Club and relevant Host Association shall discharge OFC and hold it harmless from all responsibility and relinquish any claim against OFC and the members of its delegation for any damages resulting from any act or omission relating to the organisation of the Competition other than damages as a result of the negligence of OFC or members of its delegation.
- 6.7. OFC maintains subrogation rights against the Participating Clubs and each relevant Host Association for any liability arising from their participation in the Competition.

7. Withdrawal prior to commencement of the competition (Qualifying stage and/or Championship stage)

- 7.1. All Participating Clubs undertake to play all of their matches in the Competition until eliminated.
- 7.2. Any Participating Club that:
 - 7.2.1. withdraws from the Competition prior to its commencement; or
 - 7.2.2. is excluded from the Competition prior to its commencement; or
 - 7.2.3. fails to arrive in the host country with a minimum of 16 Players and 3 Team Officials prior to the Commencement of the Competition;will be considered to have withdrawn from the Competition prior to its commencement.
- 7.3. In the case of a Participating Club withdrawing prior to the Commencement of the Competition, the OFC shall be responsible for making any decisions, including but not limited to changing the match schedule (cf. Article 14).
- 7.4. Any Participating Club that withdraws prior to the Commencement of the Competition will be liable for disciplinary action by the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee and shall be fined NZ$ 40,000.
- 7.5. Furthermore, any Participating Club that withdraws may be ordered to reimburse OFC and/or the relevant Host Association for any costs and expenses already incurred as a result of its involvement in the Competition and may also be obliged to pay compensation for any damages or losses incurred.
- 7.6. The OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee may also impose additional sanctions, including the right to ban the Participating Club from any other OFC Competition.
- 7.7. The OFC Disciplinary and Ethics committee shall determine the amount of damages for financial loss upon receipt of a substantiated and documented request from OFC and/or the relevant Host Association, and/or the Participating Club.
- 7.8. In cases of force majeure, Articles 7.2.1 and 7.2.3 and the corresponding applicable consequences pursuant from Articles 7.4 to 7.7 will not be applicable.
- 7.9. The OFC General Secretariat will be responsible for making a determination of Force Majeure and shall take whatever action is deemed necessary in the case of Force Majeure.

8. Withdrawal after commencement of the competition (Qualifying stage and/or Championship stage)

- 8.1. Any Participating Club that:
 - 8.1.1. withdraws from the Competition after it has commenced; or
 - 8.1.2. does not report for a Match; or
 - 8.1.3. refuses to play or continue a Match; or
 - 8.1.4. leaves the match venue prior to the completion of a Match, will be considered to have withdrawn from the Competition after its commencement.
- 8.2. A Participating Club that withdraws from the Competition after it has commenced shall:
 - 8.2.1. be disqualified from participating in the Competition;
 - 8.2.2. have all its matches cancelled and considered null and void. OFC will award victory and the resultant three points to the opposing Team as well as the score of 3-0;
 - 8.2.3. be disqualified from participating in the next OFC Competition;
 - 8.2.4. be ordered to reimburse OFC, the relevant Host Association or any other Participating Club for any expenses incurred as a result of its behaviour;
 - 8.2.5. where applicable, be required to pay compensation for any damages incurred by OFC, the relevant Host Association or any other Participating Club. The association in question will also forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from OFC;
 - 8.2.6. be referred to the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee which may impose further sanctions at its discretion, including the right to ban the Participating Club from any other OFC Competition.
- 8.3. Where a claim of damages for financial loss is made, the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee will determine the amount upon receipt of a substantiated and documented request from OFC and/or the relevant Host Association, and/or the Participating Club.
- 8.4. Articles 8.1, 8.2 and 8.3 will not be applicable in cases of Force Majeure.
- 8.5. The OFC General Secretariat will be responsible for making a determination of Force Majeure and shall take whatever action is deemed necessary in the case of Force Majeure.

9. Cancellation or abandonment of a match

- 9.1. If the match is stopped by the Referee before the end of normal time or during any extra time because of any Force Majeure or any other incidents such as, but not limited to, the field is not fit for play, weather conditions, floodlight failure, tournament medical requirements are not followed, etc. the following procedures must be followed:
 - 9.1.1. The match is automatically suspended for the duration of 30 minutes to allow conditions to improve sufficiently to restart the match, unless the referee decides that the match can be resumed earlier.

- 9.1.2. At the discretion of the Referee, another suspension of a maximum of 30 minutes shall be allowed if in his/her opinion this extra period of suspension will allow the match to be resumed. Otherwise, at the end of this second 30-minute period, the Referee must declare the match to have been abandoned.
- 9.1.3. In the case of an abandoned match, OFC shall decide within two hours of the Referee's decision to abandon the match whether the match result at the time of abandonment is valid or whether a replay shall be organised, taking sporting and organisational considerations into account.
- 9.2. If the match cannot commence on time due to Force Majeure or any other incidents such as, but not limited to, the field is not fit for play, weather conditions, floodlight failure, tournaments medical requirements are not followed etc. the following procedures must be followed:
 - 9.2.1. The match must first be delayed for a minimum of 30 minutes, unless the Referee decides that the match can commence earlier, before a decision to reschedule the match is taken.
 - 9.2.2. At the discretion of the Referee, another delay of a maximum of 30 minutes shall be allowed if in their opinion this extra period of delay will allow the match to commence. Otherwise, at the end of this second 30-minute period, the Referee must declare the match to have been cancelled.
 - 9.2.3. In the case of a cancelled match, OFC shall decide within two hours of the Referee's decision to cancel the match whether the match can be rescheduled, taking sporting and organisational considerations into account, or whether any other action and decision is needed to continue with the competition. Any disciplinary sanctions resulting from the cancelled match shall remain in force.
- 9.3. No appeals may be lodged against decisions stated in Article 9.1 and 9.2 above.
- 9.4. In the case a match is abandoned as a result of Force Majeure for any reason after it has already kicked off, the rescheduled match shall recommence with the same score at the minute at which play was interrupted, including penalty shoot-out, rather than being replayed in full. The following principles shall apply to the recommencement of the match:
 - 9.4.1. Any recommencement of play must be scheduled so as to comply with the health testing requirements as mandated in the THP. In general, the match shall recommence with the same players on the pitch and substitutes available as when the match was abandoned. However, if a player who was on the pitch when the match was abandoned cannot participate in the recommenced match based on the requirements under the THP, they may be replaced with a substitute player from the Official Start List.
 - 9.4.2. The recommencement of play must be scheduled so as to comply with the health testing requirements as mandated in the THP. In general, no additional substitutes may be added to the list of players on the Official Start List. However, if a player who was a substitute in the abandoned match cannot participate in the recommenced match based on the requirements under the THP, they may be replaced with a player from the provisional list.

- 9.4.3. The Teams can make only the number of substitutions to which they were still entitled when the match was abandoned;
- 9.4.4. Players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced;
- 9.4.5. Any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match;
- 9.4.6. The kick-off time, date (foreseen for the following day) and location shall be decided by OFC;
- 9.4.7. Any matters requiring further decision shall be treated by the OFC.
- 9.5. The COVID-19 pandemic and related circumstances are not, in and of themselves, considered cases of Force Majeure. However, examples of circumstances resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic that may be submitted to OFC for consideration as cases of Force Majeure include the following:
 - 9.5.1. A Host Association's country's national authorities announce just before a match is scheduled to be played restrictions that prevent the match from being staged;
 - 9.5.2. A Participating Club is not permitted to leave the country from which it is due to fly out as a result of closed borders;
 - 9.5.3. A Participating Club travelling to the country where a match is scheduled to be played is refused entry and returned to its country of origin;
 - 9.5.4. There is an insufficient number of Match Officials available to referee the match.
- 9.6. OFC has sole discretion to determine cases of Force Majeure resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

10. Disciplinary matters

- 10.1. Disciplinary incidents during the Competition are dealt with in compliance with the OFC Disciplinary Code in force as well as with the relevant Regulations, circulars and directives, with which the Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs undertake to comply.
- 10.2. OFC may introduce new disciplinary rules and sanctions for the duration of the Competition. Such rules shall be communicated to the Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs at least two weeks before the Commencement of the Competition.
- 10.3. The Participating Clubs and their Delegation Members agree to comply with the Laws of the Game and with the OFC Statutes and regulations, in particular the OFC Disciplinary Code, the FIFA Anti-Doping Regulations and the FIFA Equipment Regulations, as well as with all directives and decisions of OFC. The players and team officials agree to comply with all further OFC guidelines, circulars and decisions that have any significance regarding the Competition.
- 10.4. In addition, the players agree notably to:
 - 10.4.1. respect the spirit of fair play and non-violence;
 - 10.4.2. behave accordingly;
 - 10.4.3. refrain from doping as defined by the FIFA Anti-Doping Regulations.

11. Disputes

- 11.1. All disputes in connection with the Competition shall be promptly settled by arbitration.
- 11.2. In compliance with the OFC Statutes (Article 44), Ordinary Member Associations, and Participating Clubs and their Delegation Members may not take disputes to an ordinary court of law but to the exclusive jurisdiction of OFC and/or FIFA.
- 11.3. The Ordinary Member Associations, and Participating Clubs and their Delegation Members acknowledge and accept that, once all stages of appeal have been exhausted at OFC and/or FIFA their sole recourse shall be to the Court of Arbitration for Sport ("CAS"). Any such arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration.

12. Protests

- 12.1. For the purpose of these Regulations, protests are objections of any kind related to events or matters that directly affect matches, including but not limited to the state of and markings on the pitch, accessory match equipment, eligibility of players, venue installations and match balls.
- 12.2. Unless otherwise stipulated in this Article, protests shall be:

- 12.2.1. Submitted in writing to the OFC Match Director within two hours of the conclusion of the match in question; and
- 12.2.2. Followed up within 24 hours by a full written report, sent via email to competitions@oceaniafootball.com including a copy of the original protest, accompanied by a fee of NZ$ 500 to OFC. No fee is required to lodge a protest to the Referee under Article 12.4 and 12.6.
- 12.2.3. Protests shall be sent by the specified deadline, otherwise they will be disregarded.
- 12.3. Protests regarding the eligibility of Players nominated for matches shall be submitted in writing to OFC Competitions no later than five working days from distribution of the Official Team List, accompanied by a fee of NZ$ 500 to OFC, otherwise they will be disregarded.
- 12.4. Protests regarding the state of the pitch, its surroundings, markings, or accessory items shall be made in writing to the Referee before the start of the match by the Head of Delegation of the Participating Club lodging the protest.
- 12.5. If the state of the pitch becomes unplayable during a match, the captain of the protesting Participating Club shall immediately lodge a protest with the Referee in the presence of the captain of the opposing Participating Club. The protest shall then be confirmed in writing to the OFC Match Director by the Head of Delegation no later than two hours after the match.
- 12.6. Protests regarding any incidents during the course of a match shall be directed to the Referee by the captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has restarted.
- 12.7. No protests may be made about the Referee's decisions regarding facts connected with play, such decisions being final.
- 12.8. A protest against a caution or expulsion from the field of play after two yellow cards is admissible only if the Referee's error was to mistake the identity of the Player.
- 12.9. If an unfounded or irresponsible protest is lodged, the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee may impose a fine.
- 12.10. Protests shall be sent via email to competitions@oceaniafootball.com by the specified deadline, otherwise they will be disregarded.
- 12.11. In compliance with Article 44 of the OFC Statutes, Participating Clubs may not take disputes to a civil court. If decisions are subject to appeal, the Participating Clubs shall undertake to submit any such disputes to the jurisdiction of OFC, and, should the need arise, to FIFA and/or CAS.
- 12.12. Once each stage of the Competition has finished, any protests regarding the sporting procedure during that stage of the Competition shall be disregarded.

13. Yellow and Red Cards

- 13.1. If a Player or Official receives two yellow cards in two different matches in the same stage (Qualifying competition or Championship competition), they will be suspended from their Participating Clubs next match in the Competition.
- 13.2. If a Player or Official is sent-off as a result of a direct red card or two yellow cards during the same match, they will be automatically suspended from their Participating Clubs next match in the Competition (Qualifying competition and/or Championship competition). In addition, further sanctions can be imposed in line with the OFC Disciplinary Code in force at the time of the Competition.
- 13.3. Pending suspensions from the Qualifying competitions are always carried forward to the Championship Competition.
- 13.4. Single cautions from the Qualifying Competition that have not resulted in a suspension expire on completion of the Qualifying Competition.
- 13.5. Should a Player or Official finish the group matches of the Championship Competition having received one caution, this caution shall not be carried forward to the knockout stage.
- 13.6. Cautions and pending yellow card suspensions from the Championship Competition expire at the end of the Championship Competition.
- 13.7. Red card suspensions from the Competition carry through to the next OFC Women's Champions League.

COMPETITION FORMAT

14. Competition format

The Competition shall be organised according to a Qualifying Competition and Championship Competition:

14.1. Qualifying Competition

14.1.1. The Participating Clubs from the Ordinary Member Associations of American Samoa, Cook Islands and Tonga will contest the Qualifying Competition.

14.1.2. The Qualifying Competition will be played based on a round-robin, league system where each Team plays each other Team once, according to the league system (three points for a win, one for a draw, and none for a defeat).

14.1.3. The OFC Competitions will draw in public the schedule of the Qualifying Competition according to the match schedule below:

Match Day 1	Match Day 2	Match Day 3
Team 1 – Team 2	Team 1 – Team 3	Team 2 – Team 3

14.1.4. The winner of the Qualifying Competition will qualify for the Championship Competition as the Qualifying Competition winner.

14.2. Championship Competition

14.2.1. Eight (8) clubs shall participate in the Championship Competition: The Participating Clubs from the Ordinary Member Associations of Fiji, New Caledonia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Tahiti, Vanuatu and the Qualifying Competition Winner.

14.2.2. The Championship Competition will be played in a group stage, followed by a knockout stage consisting of the semi-finals, and the final.

14.2.3. The eight Participating Clubs that qualify for the Championship Competition will be divided into two groups of four Participating Clubs each. The Participating Clubs will be designated as follows:

Group A	Group B
A1	B1
A2	B2
A3	B3
A4	B4

14.2.4. The group matches will be played following the schedule below. Each Team will play one match against each of the other Teams in the same group, according to a league system (with three points for a win, one point for a draw, and none for a defeat). The Championship

Competition will be played following the schedule below, based on OFC draw:

Match Day 1	Match Day 2	Match Day 3
A1 v. A2	A1 v. A3	A4 v. A1
A3 v. A4	A4 v. A2	A2 v. A3
B1 v. B2	B1 v. B3	B4 v. B1
B3 v. B4	B4 v. B2	B2 v. B3

- 14.2.5. The two Teams finishing first and second in the group will contest the semi-finals as follows:

Semi-final 1	Winner Group A	v.	Runner-up Group B
Semi-final 2	Winner Group B	v.	Runner-up Group A

- 14.2.6. The two winners of the semi-finals will contest the final.

- 14.2.7. In the knockout stage matches, if a match is level at the end of normal playing time, extra time shall be played. Extra time shall consist of two 15-minute periods, with an interval not exceeding five minutes before the first period of extra time begins and a short drinks break (interval) not exceeding one minute at half time. The players shall remain on the pitch during both intervals.

- 14.2.8. If the score is still level at the end of extra time, kicks from the penalty mark shall be taken to determine the winner, in accordance with the procedure specified in the IFAB Laws of the Game.

- 14.3. If a match played as part of the Competition is abandoned due to a Team having an insufficient number of players available:

- 14.3.1. The Competition should proceed as scheduled whenever possible;
14.3.2. OFC will decide on the matter.

15. The draw

The Official Draw for each stage will take place at least two weeks prior to the Commencement of each stage.

16. Determination of the winner

- 16.1. Once the format has been confirmed and Competition has started, any change of format must be approved by the OFC Executive Committee. The ranking in each group is determined as stated in the paragraphs below.

- 16.2. The ranking of each Team in the Qualifying Competition and in the Championship Competition shall be determined as follows:

- 16.2.1. greater number of points obtained in all round-robin matches;
16.2.2. superior goal difference in all around-robin matches;
16.2.3. greater number of goals scored in all round-robin matches.

- 16.3. If two or more Teams are equal on the basis of the above three criteria, their rankings shall be determined as follows:

- 16.3.1. greater number of points obtained in the group matches between the Teams concerned;

- 16.3.2. superior goal difference resulting from the group matches between the Teams concerned;
- 16.3.3. greater number of goals scored in all the group matches between the Teams concerned;
- 16.3.4. highest team conduct score relating to the number of yellow and red cards obtained:
 - yellow card: minus 1 point
 - indirect red card (as a result of two yellow cards): minus 3 points
 - direct red card: minus 4 points
 - yellow card and direct red card: minus 5 points

Only one of the above deductions shall be applied to a player in a single match. The team with the highest number of points shall be ranked highest;
- 16.3.5. coin toss (or drawing of lots by OFC).

17. Duration of a match

- 17.1. Each match shall last 90 minutes, comprising two periods of 45 minutes, with an interval of 15 minutes from whistle to whistle.
- 17.2. Extra time shall consist of two 15-minute periods, with an interval not exceeding five minutes before the first period of extra time begins and a short drinks break (interval) not exceeding one minute at half-time. The players shall remain on the pitch during both of these intervals.

18. Penalties (penalty shoot-out)

- 18.1. Penalties (penalty shoot-out) shall be taken in accordance with the procedure specified in the IFAB Laws of the Game.
- 18.2. The penalty shoot-out will take place according to the IFAB Laws of the Game.
- 18.3. To ensure that the procedure is strictly observed, the Referee is assisted by the Assistant Referees and the Fourth Official, who also note down the numbers of the Players of each Team who take each kick in the penalty shoot-out. The Assistant Referees position themselves according to the diagram in the Laws of the Game.
- 18.4. If, at the end of match and before penalty shoot-out begins, one Team has greater number of players than its opponents, it must reduce its numbers to equate with that of its opponents and the Team captain must inform the referee of the name and number of each player excluded. Any player thus excluded may not participate in kicks from the penalty mark.
- 18.5. Before the start of penalty shoot-out, the referee must ensure that an equal number of players from each Team remains within the centre circle, and they shall take the kicks.

VENUES, DATES AND KICK-OFF TIMES

19. Match venues, training venues, dates and kick-off times for matches

- 19.1. OFC Competitions shall fix the match venue(s), dates and kick-off times. The decisions of OFC regarding the venues, dates, and kick-off times of the matches are final and binding.
- 19.2. OFC Competitions shall ensure that the match venue(s) comply with the FIFA Stadium Safety Guidelines and other OFC and FIFA guidelines and instructions for international matches in force.
- 19.3. Each relevant Host Association is responsible for safety, security and order in and around the match venue(s) before, during and after the matches.
- 19.4. The match and training venue(s), pitch, markings, equipment and all facilities for each match shall be in optimum condition and comply with the Laws of the Game and all other relevant regulations.
- 19.5. The pitch shall have the following dimensions:
 - 19.5.1. Minimum length 100m, Maximum length 110m;
 - 19.5.2. Minimum width 64m, Maximum width 75m.
 - 19.5.3. OFC's preferred dimensions are 105m x 68m.
- 19.6. In particular, the floodlighting installations at all match venues must meet the minimum lighting requirements laid down by the host broadcaster in conjunction with OFC.
- 19.7. Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match, provided that they are stopped at the end of normal playing time in each half, i.e., after 45 and 90 minutes respectively.
- 19.8. Each Host Association shall provide a sufficient number of training venues for the Participating Clubs. The training venues shall be available for at least the Official Competition Period.
- 19.9. Whenever possible, the match and training venue(s) shall not be used for any other matches or events from at least three days prior to the Official Competition Period until the Official Competition Period is completed, unless OFC gives special permission.
- 19.10. Whenever possible, the match and training venue(s) shall be available and free of all commercial activities and identifications (e.g. boards and other signage) other than those of OFC partners for each match in the Competition.
- 19.11. If, at any time during the Competition, OFC Competitions deems that for whatever reason, some venues may not be fit for staging a match; OFC Competitions may consult the relevant Host Association concerned and ask them to provide an alternative venue in accordance with the requirements of OFC. Should the relevant Host Association not be able to propose an acceptable alternative venue, OFC Competitions will select an alternative venue and make all the necessary arrangements for the staging of the Competition. The Host Association agrees to meet the corresponding costs related to this change.

PLAYERS AND OFFICIALS LISTS

20. Eligibility of players

- 20.1. Each Ordinary Member Association and Participating Club shall ensure they comply with the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfers of Players and the FIFA Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes in force when selecting its players for the Competition.
- 20.2. Each Participating Club shall certify the following when submitting its Team lists for the Competition:
 - 20.2.1. all Players shall be eligible to play provided they are duly registered with their Participating Club in accordance with the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players as well as the regulations of the Participating Club's respective Ordinary Member Association, no later than:
 - 20.2.1.1. 17 March 2026 (23:59 New Zealand date and time) for Clubs participating at the Qualifying Competition; and
 - 20.2.1.2. 20 May 2026 (23:59 New Zealand date and time) for Clubs participating at the Championship Competition.
 - 20.2.2. a Player registered with one Ordinary Member Association may only be registered with another Ordinary Member Association once the latter has received the International Transfer Certificate from the Ordinary Member Association that the Player is leaving in accordance with the requirements of the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players;
 - 20.2.3. a Player may not play in the Competition for more than one Participating Club in the course of the same season; and
 - 20.2.4. a Player has had medical clearance to compete in the Competition.
- 20.3. Only players who comply with and pass the testing requirements and timelines stipulated in the THP (negative test result where applicable) will be considered eligible players.
- 20.4. Any Team that is found guilty of fielding an ineligible player shall forfeit the match or matches it has played. Victory and the resultant three points will be awarded to the opposing Team as well as the score of 3-0, or greater, depending on the score of the match. OFC is the competent body to decide in this regard. Decisions taken by OFC are final and binding and not subject to appeal.
- 20.5. The matter is then to be referred to the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee for appropriate disciplinary action against the Ordinary Member Association and/or the Participating Club.

21. Official Team List (General)

- 21.1. The Official Team List for the Competition must be completed in COMET to OFC no later than the stipulated deadline prescribed in relevant Circular.
- 21.2. Should the Official Team List not be completed by the stipulated deadline prescribed in Article 21.1, the Participating Club will be subject to the provisions contained at Article 4.4.10.
- 21.3. Each Player and Official must be registered in COMET, with the COMET ID for each Player or Official containing all of the following items of data;
 - 21.3.1. Surname
 - 21.3.2. First name(s)
 - 21.3.3. OFC name
 - 21.3.4. Date of birth
 - 21.3.5. Country of birth
 - 21.3.6. FIFA nationality
 - 21.3.7. Valid passport number
- 21.4. Any Participating Club that fails to provide OFC with the items of data required by article 21.3 will be fined NZ$ 100 by the OFC for each item of data not provided, and NZ$ 200 for each item of incorrect or missing data at the proof of identity and nationality undertaken in accordance with Article 24.3.
- 21.5. Only the Players and Officials in the Official Team List will be permitted to participate in the Competition.
- 21.6. OFC shall issue each Player and Official in the Official Team List with an Accreditation. The Accreditation shall always be available for inspection during the Competition.

22. Official Team List (Player)

- 22.1. Before the Qualifying Competition, and Championship Competition, each Participating Club will provide an Official Team List. Each Participating Club may include up to 30 Players in the Official Team List for the Competition, three of whom must be goalkeepers, regardless of the total number of Players nominated. A player who is registered as a goalkeeper on the Official Team List may only play as a goalkeeper.
 - 22.1.1. When the regulations of the Ordinary Member Association of the respective Participating Club permit less than 30 Players, the maximum number of players permitted according to the regulations of their Ordinary Member Association will apply to the respective Participating Club;
 - 22.1.2. When the regulations of the Ordinary Member Association of the respective Participating Club permit more than 30 players, the maximum number of players permitted by that respective Participating Club is 30.
- 22.2. The Participating Club may include up to three Non-citizen Foreign Players (Players who do not hold the nationality of the Ordinary Member Association to which the Participating Club is affiliated) within the maximum of 30 Players.

Each Participating Club may also include one additional Non-citizen Foreign Player who holds the nationality of an OFC Ordinary Member Association, within the maximum of 30 Players. In all cases, the nationality of the Player shall be in accordance with the FIFA Statutes – Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes.

- 22.3. In addition to the information specific in article 21.3, the Official Team List must also include the following items of data for each Player:
 - 22.3.1. Position
 - 22.3.2. Date of registration with the Participating Club
- 22.4. Any Participating Club that fails to provide OFC with the required information will be fined NZ$ 100 by the OFC for each item of data not provided, and NZ$ 200 for each item of incorrect or missing data at the proof of identity and nationality undertaken in accordance with Article 24.3.
- 22.5. No further players may be added to the Official Team List after the deadline for submission has passed.
- 22.6. No Players in the Official Team List can be replaced after the deadline for submission has passed.

23. Official Team List (Team Officials)

- 23.1. Each Participating Club may include an unlimited number of Team Officials in the Official Team List for the Competition.
- 23.2. Where appointed, the following Officials must meet the minimum coaching qualification specified:
 - 23.2.1. The head coach and assistant coach must hold at the minimum an OFC C License (or equivalent).
 - 23.2.2. The goalkeeper coach must hold at the minimum an MA Certificate (or equivalent).
- 23.3. Failure of any coach to meet the minimum coaching qualification requirements listed in Article 23.2 will result in that Team Official not being issued with an Accreditation preventing their access to any and all areas which require accreditation.
- 23.4. Each team must have a minimum of one Team Official that is female.
- 23.5. Each Participating Club shall appoint a designated Team Safeguarding/Welfare Officer to act as a focal point for all matters related to the safeguarding and well-being of the players and team delegation. This role does not have to be exclusive and can be assigned to the medical doctor or other trained member of the accredited team delegation. It is a mandatory requirement that the designated Team Safeguarding/Welfare Officer complete the FIFA Guardians Safeguarding Essentials online course (<https://safeguardingsport.fifa.com/>). The role of the Team Safeguarding/Welfare Officer is to:
 - 23.5.1. act as the first point of contact and lead for all safeguarding matters within the team delegation during the Competition;

- 23.5.2. take all reasonable steps to ensure that the players' mental and physical well-being is prioritised;
- 23.5.3. liaise with the Competition Safeguarding Lead and the OFC Safeguarding and Wellbeing Manager should a concern or an allegation of harassment or abuse (be it psychological, physical, or sexual, or neglect) arise; and
- 23.5.4. know the specific safeguarding measures for the Competition and the avenues available for reporting concerns.
- 23.6. The Participating Club is entitled to register a 'Video Analyst', as one of officials who will record the Matches in the Competition while this recording shall be strictly used only for technical purpose and not interfere with match operation.
- 23.7. In addition to the information specific in Article 21.3, the Official Team List must also include the following items of data for each Team Official;
 - 23.7.1. Function
 - 23.7.2. Coaching License (where applicable)
 - 23.7.3. FIFA Nationality
- 23.8. Any Participating Club that fails to provide OFC with the required information will be fined NZ$ 100 by the OFC for each item of data missing, at each deadline.
- 23.9. At any time after the deadline for submission of the Official Team List has passed, an Official may be:
 - 23.9.1. added to the Official Team List; or
 - 23.9.2. replaced by another Official.

24. Tournament Team List

- 24.1. Before the Qualifying Competition, and Championship Competition, each Participating Club will provide a Tournament Team List. Only the Players which were included in the Participating Club's Official Team List will be able to be selected to include in the Tournament Team List. The Tournament Team List will be required to be submitted within the deadlines as prescribed in the relevant issued circulars.
- 24.2. The Tournament Team List may include the maximum number of Players as follows:
 - 24.2.1. Qualifying Competition: a maximum of 18 Players
 - 24.2.2. Championship Competition: a maximum of 23 Players
- 24.3. Before their first match in the Competition, each Player on the Tournament Team List must prove their identity and nationality by producing their legally valid individual passport with a photograph (stating day, month and year of birth) or legally valid Certificate of Identity. Any Player who fails to present their passport (or legally valid Certificate of Identity) will not be allowed to take part in the Competition.
- 24.4. A Player on the Tournament Team List may only be replaced by a Player on the Official Team List in the event of serious injury or illness, or exceptional personal circumstances recognised by OFC Competitions up until 24 hours before the kick-off of their Team's first match in the respective stage of the Competition.

- 24.4.1. In the event of serious injury or illness, such replacement must be approved in writing by OFC Competitions, after a detailed medical assessment in one of the two OFC official languages (English and French) has been submitted to OFC, and only after acceptance and confirmation by a designated medical officer that the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the Player from taking part in the Competition.
- 24.4.2. In the event of exceptional personal circumstances recognised by OFC Competitions, after a detailed written request in one of the two OFC official languages (English and French) has been submitted, and only after acceptance and confirmation that the personal circumstance prevents the Player from taking part in the Competition.
- 24.4.3. The Participating Club shall then immediately nominate the replacement and inform OFC accordingly.
- 24.5. During the Qualifying Competition, and the Championship Competition, no Player may be replaced in the Tournament Team List, except if it involves a goalkeeper who is injured during the Competition and can no longer take part in the remainder of the Competition, and only after acceptance and confirmation by a designated medical officer that the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the goalkeeper from taking part in the Competition. The Participating Club shall then immediately nominate the replacement from their registered goalkeepers on the Official Team List and inform OFC Competitions accordingly.

KIT AND TEAM EQUIPMENT

25. Equipment and team colours

- 25.1. The Participating Club shall comply with the FIFA Equipment Regulations in force unless otherwise specified in these Regulations. The display of political, religious, or personal messages or slogans in any language or form by players and officials on their playing or Team kits, equipment (including kit bags, beverage containers, medical bags, etc.) or body is prohibited. The similar display of commercial messages and slogans in any language or form by players and officials is not allowed for the duration of their time at any official activity organised or recognised by OFC (including in the stadiums for official matches and training sessions, as well as during official media conferences and mixed-zone activities).
- 25.2. Any Participating Club that does not comply with Article 25.1 shall be fined a minimum of NZ$ 2000 by the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee.
- 25.3. Each Participating Club shall inform OFC Competitions of two different and contrasting colours (one predominantly dark and one predominantly light) for its first-choice team kit and alternative Team kit. In addition, each Participating Club shall select at least three contrasting colours for its goalkeeper kits. These three goalkeeper kits must be different and contrasting from each other as well as different from the official and reserve Team kits. Each Participating club shall also select a minimum of three colours of substitute bibs that are contrasting from all their Team and goalkeeper kits.
- 25.4. This information, supported by photos or samples of their official and reserve Team kits, shall be sent to OFC Competitions on the official form and no later than as prescribed by the relevant issued circular. Only these colours may be worn during matches. Any Participating Club that does not comply with this Article shall be fined NZ$ 500 by the OFC.
- 25.5. OFC Competitions will inform the Participating Club of the playing colours before the start of each match. As far as possible, each Team shall wear its first-choice colours as declared on the official form. If the two Teams' colours and the match officials' colours might cause confusion, in principle, Team A in the match schedule shall be entitled to wear its first-choice Team kit and Team B shall use its alternative Team kit or, if necessary, both Teams may have to wear a combination of their first-choice and alternative Team kits. The colours decided by OFC Competitions, in consultation with the Match Officials, is final.
- 25.6. The playing jerseys must use numbers between 1 and 99. The number 1 shall be reserved exclusively for one of the goalkeepers. The numbers on the playing jerseys shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the Official Team List. The number must be displayed and clearly visible (e.g. contrasting colour to the shirt) on the back of the playing shirt and on the front of the shorts. The same number may, at the Participating Clubs' discretion, be displayed on the front of the shirt. In the event of a goalkeeper being replaced by an outfield Player, each Participating Club shall provide a goalkeeper kit without a number displayed on the back of the shirt in order to distinguish this replacement goalkeeper from other Players.

- 25.7. Throughout all stages of the Competition, each Player shall wear the number assigned to them on the Official Team List.
- 25.8. The first-choice and alternative Team kits and all goalkeeper kits (including all shirts without names and numbers) shall be taken to every match.
- 25.9. In the event of a Player's shirt needing replacement during a match, each Participating Club shall provide at least three "blood shirts" in both "first-choice" and "alternative" colours without a number displayed on the back of the shirt in order to distinguish a Player should they need to change their shirt.
- 25.10. In the event of a goalkeeper being replaced by an outfield Player, each Participating Club shall provide a goalkeeper kit without a number displayed on the back of the shirt in order to distinguish this replacement goalkeeper from other Players.
- 25.11. A Participating Club may only use a sponsor which has been approved by its Ordinary Member Association before the Commencement of the Competition and within the deadlines as prescribed in the relevant circulars.
- 25.12. A Participating Club shall not change their shirt sponsor during the Competition.
- 25.13. OFC Competitions reserves the right to request any FIFA or OFC logo to appear on the right sleeve of the shirt during matches, between the shoulder seam and the elbow. OFC Competitions will provide each Participating Club with sufficient temporary sleeve patches to cover their needs throughout the Competition.
- 25.14. OFC will determine the official match ball of the Competition and each Participating Club will receive a minimum of ten official match balls for training purposes on arrival in the host country. The winner of the Qualifying Competition will only receive upon arrival in the host country for the Qualifying Competition and must take these balls with them to the Championship Competition.

MATCH DAY ORGANISATION

26. OFC Match Director

- 26.1. An OFC Match Director shall be appointed for each match of the Competition. The Match Director will be responsible for all aspects of the match organisation.
- 26.2. The OFC Match Director must complete the competitions report with a copy of the Official Start List and transfer them together with the Referee Report to OFC Competitions at the conclusion of the match.
- 26.3. Team Arrival Meetings and Match Director Meetings shall take place as directed by OFC Competitions and/or the OFC Match Director.

27. Match Organisation

- 27.1. The official countdown to kick-off provided to both Teams at the Match Coordination Meeting in advance of the match shall be strictly complied with by both Teams.
- 27.2. The OFC and FIFA flags must be hoisted or draped in the venue clearly visible to spectators at every match. In addition, OFC retains the right to fly additional flags should the need arise.
- 27.3. The FIFA anthem shall be played while the Participating Clubs are entering the field. No national anthems are played during the Competition.
- 27.4. No more than 23 people (maximum 11 Team Officials and 12 Substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the team bench in the technical area.
- 27.5. Smoking is not permitted in the technical area, in the vicinity of the field of play or within the Competition areas such as the changing rooms.
- 27.6. The use of any electronic communication equipment and/or systems is regulated by the IFAB Laws of the Game and the relevant instructions issued. Under no circumstances may any such systems be used by teams in connection with any kind of refereeing decision or matter.
- 27.7. Whenever possible, both Teams will be entitled to an Official Training Session of a maximum of 45 minutes the day before the match at the venue where they are scheduled to play. Training times will be communicated by OFC. OFC reserves the right to shorten or cancel the Official Training Session.
- 27.8. Whenever possible, both Teams will be entitled to warm-up on the pitch before the match. The OFC Match Director reserves the right to shorten or cancel the warm-up session.

28. Official Start List

- 28.1. Before each match, each Participating Club must submit an Official Start List in COMET, containing the names and numbers of the Players, and Team Officials on the bench, selected for that match.

- 28.2. For the Qualifying Competition and Championship Competition, the Official Start List shall be selected from the Tournament Team List submitted in accordance with Article 24.
- 28.3. The 11 selected Players must commence the match. The remaining eligible players are designated as Substitutes. The numbers on the shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the Official Start List. The goalkeepers and Team captain also must be identified.
- 28.4. The Official Start List must contain a minimum of 14 players, one of which must be a goalkeeper. If there are fewer than 14 players available, OFC will consider the matter and may make exceptions on a case-by-case basis. The 11 first-named players must start the match, and the remaining players on the Official Start List are designated as substitutes. The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the Official Start List. All goalkeepers and the captain must be identified as such. At least one player must be a goalkeeper, up to a maximum of three, with the number 1 shirt reserved for one of them.
- 28.5. Both Teams must submit their Official Start List on COMET at least 85 minutes before kick-off.
- 28.6. The OFC Match Director and/or Match Official may ask to see the accreditations of the players whose names are listed on the Official Start List.
- 28.7. Each player who is named on the Official Start List must be available at the equipment check undertaken by the fourth official and/or the OFC Match Director before every match.
- 28.8. After the Official Start List has been submitted, and if the match has not yet kicked-off, the following instructions apply:
- 28.8.1. If any of the first 11 players (starting players) named on the Official Start List are not able to start the match for any reason, they may be replaced by any of the available substitutes. The replaced player(s) may no longer take part in the match, and the quota of substitute players shall be reduced accordingly. During the match, up to five players may still be replaced.
- 28.8.2. If any of the substitutes named on the Official Start List are not able to be fielded for any reason, the player(s) concerned may not be replaced on the bench by an additional player, which means that the quota of substitutes shall be reduced accordingly. During the match, up to five players may still be replaced.
- 28.8.3. Further to the above, any injured or ill Player who is removed from the Official Start List will no longer be eligible to take part in the match, and thus cannot be selected as a substitute player at any time during the game. Such a change to the Official Start List will not reduce the number of official substitutions that may be made by a Team during the match. In accordance with Law 3 of the Laws of the Game, up to a maximum of five substitutions may still be made.
- 28.8.4. Although no longer eligible to play as a substitute, the injured or ill Player who was removed from the Official Start List may be seated on the substitutes' bench, and if so, would then also be eligible for doping control selection.

- 28.8.5. Only the players who were identified on the Official Start List submitted to the OFC Match Director or were confirmed as a warm-up injury/illness replacement player, may start the match. In the case of any discrepancies of players on the pitch at the beginning of a match, the matter may be submitted to the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee for a decision.
- 28.9. A suspended Player will not be allowed to sit on the team bench.

29. Substitution and Warm-up of Players

- 29.1. The substitution of five players per Team is permitted in the course of a match, in accordance with Law 3 – The Players – temporary amendment.
 - 29.1.1. During the match, each Team:
 - 29.1.1.1. may use a maximum of five substitutes
 - 29.1.1.2. has a maximum of three substitution opportunities*
 - 29.1.1.3. may additionally make substitutions at half-time
 - 29.1.2. Where extra time is played, each Team:
 - 29.1.2.1. may use an additional substitute (whether or not the Team has used its maximum number of substitutes)
 - 29.1.2.2. has one additional substitution opportunity* (whether or not the Team has used its maximum number of substitution opportunities)
 - 29.1.2.3. may additionally make substitutions:
 - 29.1.2.3.1. in the period before the start of extra time;
 - 29.1.2.3.2. at half-time in extra time.
 - 29.1.3. If a Team has not used its maximum number of substitutes or substitution opportunities, the unused substitutions and opportunities may be used in extra time.
 - 29.1.4. *Where both Teams make a substitution at the same time, this will count as a used substitution opportunity for each Team.
NB: the use of return substitutes is not an option for senior competitions.
- 29.2. During the match, substitutes are allowed to leave the technical area to warm-up. At the Match Coordination Meeting, the OFC Match Director will confirm the warm-up area for substitutes. In principle, all substitutes must wear bibs and the warm-up area is behind the goal closest to their team bench.
- 29.3. If space permits, a maximum of six substitutes per Team shall be allowed to warm-up at the same time. A maximum of two officials are permitted to accompany the Players.

30. Media and TV

- 30.1. Amendments to media provisions may be necessary in accordance with the requirements of the Confederation, the guidelines in the THP or the directives issued by the competent local authority.
- 30.2. OFC will set up and manage a media accreditation programme to manage access and privileges of all media personnel and agencies.
- 30.3. No representatives of the written press or radio journalists are allowed in the playing area or the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators.
- 30.4. Only a limited number of photographers, TV cameramen and technicians of the host broadcaster – all equipped with special permits for the event – are allowed in the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators, where they will carry out their work in the specific locations assigned to them.
- 30.5. A post-match press conference or mixed zone may be conducted at the venue and must start 15 minutes after the final whistle. At least the coach and captain of the Participating Club must be available for the press conference or mixed zone.
- 30.6. The team dressing-rooms are off-limits to representatives of the media before, during and after the match.
- 30.7. If Participating Clubs wish to engage their respective recording(s) and/or media person(s) to record any part of the match and/or training session, such filming and/or recording shall only be done with the prior written approval of OFC and that such recording shall only be used for non-commercial and/or technical analysis purposes for their Teams own match and training session.
- 30.8. OFC will provide the Participating Club with video footage of matches involving their Team with the sole purpose of technical analysis only. Any Participating Club found to have violated and abused the use of this video footage will be liable for disciplinary action and sanctioned by the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee. Video footage of the matches not involving their Team will only be distributed upon the agreement by the majority of the Participating Clubs at the Match Coordination Meeting prior to the Competition.
- 30.9. OFC may issue additional Media and Marketing Regulations specifying the media requirements. All Participating Clubs shall fully comply with these Regulations and ensure that their Delegation Members and any other persons acting on behalf of the Participating Club also comply.

REFEREEING

31. OFC Referee Assessor

- 31.1. The OFC Referee Department will appoint a Referees Assessor for each match of the Competition. The Referee Assessor will be responsible for the match officials for each match of the Competition.
- 31.2. The OFC Referee Assessor must complete the Referee Assessor Report and send it to the OFC Referees Department at the conclusion of the match.

32. Match Officials

- 32.1. Five Match Officials (one Referee, plus two Assistant Referees, one Fourth Official and one Fifth Official) will be appointed for each match by the OFC Referee Department. Whenever possible, they shall be selected from the FIFA International Refereeing List in force. They shall be neutral and not a citizen of a country or member of a Participating Club whose Team is playing in the match in question.
- 32.2. The OFC Referee Department may decide to appoint a Match Official not on the FIFA International Refereeing List in force, but who have the necessary experience to officiate at the Competition.
- 32.3. All Match Officials appointed to the Competition may be required to pass the FIFA Referees Fitness Test upon arrival in the host country and before the Commencement of the Competition.
- 32.4. If a Match Official proves to be unfit or fails the FIFA Referees Fitness Test, they will be sent home and the costs of their international air travel, accommodation, meals and other incidental costs and expenses will be reimbursed to OFC by their Ordinary Member Association.
- 32.5. The Match Officials shall be given the opportunity to use the training site(s).
- 32.6. If one of the Match Officials is prevented from carrying out their duties, such Match Official shall be replaced by the Fourth Official or Fifth Official. The OFC Referee Department shall be informed immediately.
- 32.7. A minimum of three Match Officials are needed to referee the match.
- 32.8. After each match the Referee shall verify that the match details entered into Comet are correct. In the event of an expulsion or any other misconduct occurring before, during and after the match, the Referee shall also complete and submit an Match Official Incident Report Form.
- 32.9. The decisions of the OFC Referee Department are final and not subject to appeal.

33. Laws of the Game

All matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game in force at the time of the Competition and as laid down by the International Football Association Board. In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the translations of the Laws of the Game, the English version shall be authoritative.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

34. Financial provisions (OFC)

- 34.1. OFC shall bear the costs of the following in relation to the Competition:

MEDICAL

39. Medical/Doping

- 39.1. Each Participating Club shall include at least one qualified physiotherapist (medical doctor is recommended) in its delegation for each match.
- 39.2. To protect players' health, each Participating Club shall ensure that all its players undergo a pre-competition medical assessment prior to the start of the Competition, conducted by a registered medical professional who must certify that players are medically fit to play.
- 39.3. Failure to comply with the aforementioned provision will result in the Participating Club being liable for disciplinary action and shall be sanctioned by the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee in accordance with the OFC Disciplinary Code.
- 39.4. All Participating Clubs will be aware of the travel and entry requirements of the host country, specifically in relation to any medical requirements, and ensure compliance is achieved with all entry and travel-related requirements.
- 39.5. All Participating Clubs will be aware of the re-entry requirements for their home country in the event that any of their travellers may come into contact with a communicable disease whilst travelling and ensure that all travellers meet the respective requirements.
- 39.6. All Teams must be prepared with a comprehensive first aid/medical kit which must include a thermometer and masks, and a plan for isolating any travellers who become unwell.
- 39.7. Doping is strictly prohibited. OFC shall be responsible for deciding which laboratory among those accredited by the World Anti-Doping Agency ("WADA") will analyse samples.
- 39.8. The OFC Disciplinary Code, the FIFA Doping Control Regulations and all other relevant OFC and/or FIFA directives shall apply to the Competition.

40. Cooling Break

- 40.1. In principle, the cooling break will be applied in line with the Tournament Medical Requirements (TMR).
- 40.2. The Wet Bulb Globe Temperature (WBGT) will be the official measure used to determine whether cooling breaks shall be implemented. The WBGT is a composite temperature used to estimate the effect of temperature, humidity, wind speed (wind chill), and visible and infrared radiation on players.
- 40.3. In principle, the break will apply on a match-by-match basis during the Competition if the WBGT is greater than 28°C and will be confirmed to the Teams and Match Officials by the OFC Match Director of each match.
- 40.4. Should the WBGT be greater than 28°C, there will be one cooling break for a maximum of three minutes in duration, at approximately the 30th minute of each half will take place.

- 40.5. In the event that the WBGT is 32°C or above, one drinks break for a maximum of one minute duration at approximately the 15th minute of each half and one cooling break for a maximum of three minutes in duration at approximately the 30th minute of each half will take place.
- 40.6. The below procedures will be applied during Competition matches:
 - 40.7. The ball must be out of play for the cooling break to commence
 - 40.8. The referee will signal the start of the break
 - 40.9. All players will go to their respective bench/technical area and use ice and cold towels to cool down
 - 40.10. The match time will continue to run
 - 40.11. After three minutes the referee will signal the conclusion of the break and the match will restart
 - 40.12. The three minutes will be added to stoppage time

COMMERCIAL PROVISIONS

41. Commercial rights

- 41.1. OFC owns and controls all commercial rights in relation to the Competition.
- 41.2. All Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs shall fully comply with these Regulations and ensure that their Delegation Members and any other persons acting on behalf of an association also comply.

42. Commercial regulations

- 42.1. OFC owns all of the rights in, and relating to, the OFC marks and the marks of the Competition, including the trademarks (and all translations thereof);

- 42.2. The only Official Emblem for the Competition is contained at Appendix A of these Regulations.
- 42.3. OFC will take all legal and any other steps it deems appropriate to prevent and prohibit unauthorised companies, including the Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs own partners from commercially identifying with, or otherwise exploiting the Competition.
- 42.4. The Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs shall assist OFC in resolving any intellectual property infringements or ambush activities involving the Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs' own partners.
- 42.5. Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs are expressly prohibited from identifying their Partners in connection with the Official Emblem or name of the Competition in any media, including official match publications, promotional materials and tickets, in such a way as may give rise to an association between the Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs own Partners and the Competition, without prior written approval and/or agreement from OFC.
- 42.6. The Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs shall further inform their partners in writing of the Ordinary Member Association's and Participating Club's obligations in this respect and shall notify their partners that they may not conduct any promotional activities which involve use of the Official Emblem, the Official Mascot (if applicable) or any marks which are confusingly similar to the OFC marks relating to the Competition. In particular, not:
 - 42.6.1. Sell, offer to sell, or authorise any third party to sell any tickets over the internet, or;

- 42.6.2. Use or authorise any entity, including the Ordinary Member Associations' and Participating Clubs own partners, to use any tickets for advertising, sales promotions, or other commercial purposes, including premiums, give-aways or prizes in a tournament, contest, or sweepstake.
- 42.7. If an Ordinary Member Association or Participating Club fails to comply with the above obligations, it will be liable to disciplinary action and sanctions imposed by the OFC Disciplinary and Ethics Committee.

43. Commercial exploitation of Marketing Rights

- 43.1. OFC owns all rights of commercial exploitation including all Marketing Rights (as defined in these Regulations), and all other rights relating to, or accruing in connection with the Competition and its organisation.
- 43.2. OFC may grant certain exclusive rights to its Partners to commercially exploit the Marketing Rights and no entity other than those appointed by OFC are entitled to commercially exploit any Marketing Rights whatsoever.
- 43.3. At the request of a Host Association, OFC may grant certain rights to the relevant Host Association to commercially exploit the Marketing Rights. The relevant Host Association will not be permitted to transfer or delegate the rights to any third party and only the rights granted by OFC to the relevant Host Association will be allowed to be exploited by the relevant Host Association in accordance with OFC's directives.
- 43.4. All Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs shall take all legal and other measures OFC deems appropriate to prevent and prohibit unauthorised use of the Marketing Rights by any parties, to ensure that all Marketing Rights are owned solely and without restrictions by OFC and can be exploited without any restrictions whatsoever.

44. Marketing Rights

- 44.1. OFC owns and has the sole and exclusive right to exploit all Marketing Rights relating to the Competition in any manner at its sole discretion.
- 44.2. The Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs have no Marketing Rights in connection with the Competition whatsoever. Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs must not undertake any commercial activity of any nature related to the Competition without prior written approval from OFC.
- 44.3. All Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs shall take all legal and other measures OFC deems appropriate to prevent and prohibit unauthorised use of the Marketing Rights by any parties, to ensure that all Marketing Rights are owned solely and without restrictions by OFC and can be exploited without any restrictions whatsoever.

45. Media rights

- 45.1. OFC owns and controls all Media Rights in relation to the Competition.
- 45.2. All Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs shall fully comply with these Regulations and ensure that their Delegation Members and any other persons acting on behalf of an Ordinary Member Association or Participating Club also comply.

46. Media regulations

- 46.1. OFC owns all rights of commercial exploitation including all Media Rights, and all other rights relating to, or accruing in connection with the Competition and its organisation.
- 46.2. OFC may grant certain exclusive rights to partners to commercially exploit the Media Rights and no entity other than those appointed by OFC are entitled to commercially exploit any Broadcast Rights whatsoever.
- 46.3. All Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs are required to correctly refer to the OFC Women's Champions League and OFC in all media releases, including any related sponsor name(s).

47. Broadcast Rights

The Ordinary Member Associations and Participating Clubs have no Broadcast Rights in connection with the Competition whatsoever.

AWARDS

48. Trophies, awards and medals

- 48.1. A representative from OFC will present the winner with the OFC Women's Champions League trophy.
- 48.2. Medals will be presented to each of the Teams contesting the final.
 - 48.2.1. Gold medals to the winners;
 - 48.2.2. Silver medals to the runner-up.
- 48.3. At the conclusion of the Championship Competition, the following special awards will be presented by a representative from OFC:
 - 48.3.1. Fair Play Trophy, presented to the Team finishing first in the fair play contest.
 - 48.3.2. Golden Boot, awarded to the Player who scores the most goals in the Competition.
 - 48.3.3. Golden Ball, awarded to the most influential Player in the Competition as determined by OFC.
 - 48.3.4. Golden Glove, awarded to the best goalkeeper in the Competition as determined by OFC.
- 48.4. There are no official awards other than those listed above unless otherwise decided by the OFC Executive Committee.
- 48.5. A fair play contest will be held during the Competition, with the number of yellow and red cards in all stages of the Competition being considered according to the points below. OFC will determine the ranking at the end of the Competition, with the team with the fewest number of points determined the winner. Such decisions are final.
 - 48.5.1. first yellow card: minus 1 point
 - 48.5.2. second yellow card/indirect red card: minus 3 points
 - 48.5.3. direct red card: minus 4 points
 - 48.5.4. yellow card and direct red card: minus 5 points
- 48.6. In the event that there is a tie following the process outlined in article 48.5, the following criteria will be used to determine the fair play award winner:
 - 48.6.1. Lowest fair play points per number of matches team has played
 - 48.6.2. Team with the least number of fouls committed (if TSG is present to record this information)
 - 48.6.3. Both teams will be awarded
- 48.7. In the event that more than one player is equal on the number of goals scored the following criteria will be used to determine the winner:
 - 48.7.1. Player with the fewest number of matches played during the competition
 - 48.7.2. Player with the fewest total minutes played during the competition
 - 48.7.3. Player with the most goal assists during the competition (if TSG is present to record this information)
 - 48.7.4. Both players will be awarded

FINAL PROVISIONS

49. Special circumstances

OFC Competitions shall issue any instructions necessitated by special circumstances that may arise in the host country. These instructions shall form an integral part of these Regulations.

50. Matters not provided for

Any matters not provided for in these Regulations shall be decided by OFC. All decisions shall be final and binding and not subject to appeal.

51. Languages

If any discrepancy in the interpretation of the English or French texts of these Regulations, the English text shall be authoritative.

52. No waiver

Any waiver by OFC of any breach of these Regulations (including any document referred to in these regulations) will not operate as, or be construed to be, a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision or a waiver of any right arising out of these regulations or any other document. Any such waiver shall only be valid if given in writing. Failure by OFC to insist upon strict adherence to any provision of these regulations or any document referred to in these regulations on one or more occasions will not be considered to be a waiver of or deprive OFC of the right to subsequently insist upon strict adherence to that provision or any other provision of these regulations or any document referred to in these regulations.

53. Enforcement

53.1. These regulations have been approved by the OFC Executive Committee on (insert date) and come into force immediately.

53.2. The previous version of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to any matters that arose before these Regulations came into force.
